Angel partners with executives of world-leading companies to help their teams, leaders and organizations perform better.

He believes that the best individual and collective performance is driven by doing work that is meaningful and worthwhile. This belief, and his unique, collaborative approach, shaped by more than 25 years of diverse professional experiences, have made him a trusted partner to some of the world's leading companies, who count on him to develop better employees, better leaders and better organizations. Through his workshops, consulting, leadership coaching, speeches and social media channels, he has helped thousands of people and global brands like Facebook, Walmart and Kraft to strategically approach key initiatives through accelerated performance.

Before launching his practice in 2008, Angel served as the Vice President of Human Resources for the Midwest Division of Walmart Stores, Inc. In that capacity, Angel developed strategies, processes and practices that enabled the $55 billion business unit to achieve their objectives by leveraging its talented workforce.

Angel joined Walmart Stores, Inc. in 2004, after a successful legal career in private practice and the organized bar. He was a partner at several large law firms in Chicago, and served as the President of the Hispanic National Bar Association, representing the interests of more than 25,000 Hispanic attorneys, judges, law professors and law students throughout the United States.

Angel has been recognized by several organizations, including iConexión, which presented him with the Game Changer Award in 2018, the Hispanic Alliance for Career Enhancement with their Maestro Award in 2014, and Hispanic Business Magazine, who in 2002 named him one of the Most Influential Hispanics in the United States.

Angel received his Juris Doctor and his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, graduating with honors and distinction for his academic, research and speaking achievements.
